

Small Talk is not only an art of talking but also an art of asking questions.

Small Talk is a dialogue, you answer questions but you also pose them.

Small Talk questions training based on Let's Talk Business Questions.

Small talk during a conference.

1. Ask synonymous questions:

Do you like the conference?

_____

Which part did you like the most?

_____

Where is the buffet?

_____

Are there good prices for the materials today?

_____

Do you like the agenda of the conference?

_____

2. How would you ask about:

Weather _____

Journey to the conference _____

Organisation _____

Nearby restaurants _____

Best presenters _____

3. Choose the best option:

Last month I was in/on an amazing conference in Warsaw.

We believe that there are a lot of impressive themes in/on the today's agenda.

I've bought a lot of Let's Talk Conversation cards at/on a discount on the conference.

Are you good in/at getting to know new people?

You may find my phone number in/on my business card.
