

PHRASAL VERBS

1. Complete the sentences using the following prepositions: on, up, down, off, out, back, in, for.

- 1) I lent him some money last year but he hasn't paid me _____ yet.
- 2) I'm afraid you'll have to turn the music _____; it's nearly 12 midnight now.
- 3) Do you get _____ well with your superior?
- 4) To get to the theatre, you should take no. 18 bus and get _____ at the fifth stop.
- 5) He's been looking _____ a job since he was fired in 2020.
- 6) You should give _____ smoking immediately.
- 7) Could you fill _____ this form, please?
- 8) The weekend is coming soon so we are planning to go _____ with some friends.

2. Some of these sentences include incorrectly used phrasal verbs. Find and correct the mistakes. Tick the correct sentences.

- 1) When she told them her favourite joke, they burst out laughing.
- 2) My sister is away for a couple of days so I'm looking over her kids.
- 3) We are running out of time so let's get down to work now.
- 4) I think he should take down a new hobby.
- 5) I can no longer put up with this terrible noise!
- 6) He always asks his son to take off the trash.
- 7) Why don't you stock up your fridge at the weekend?
- 8) His grandpa never throws back things that can be repaired.

3. Choose the correct phrasal verb to complete each sentence: find out, grow up, set up, come back, turn off, come up with, take on, pick up. Use the correct forms of the verbs.

- 1) Do you think they will _____ with a better idea?
- 2) My grandma _____ in London in the 1950s.
- 3) Please _____ the children from school on your way back home.
- 4) We must _____ who made this mistake.
- 5) Would you mind _____ the air conditioning?
- 6) I've always wanted to _____ my own business.
- 7) After years of living and working abroad, he _____ to his hometown in 2021.
- 8) Are you willing and able to _____ more responsibility at work?